Genji Kyoto

Hashidono-cho 362-3, Shimogyo-ku, Kyoto 600 8113
genjikyoto.com

01 Pub Rock Stock Pub

Small pub behind garage with eclectic vinyl collection and moderately priced drinks. Enjoy free atmosphere and communication by universal language of music!

02 Umeyu Sento 梅湯 Bathhouse

Century-old bathhouse and events space revived by creative young entrepreneur. Enjoy traditional sento with different bath pools for a refreshing and culturally enriching experience.

03 Kanya Kyonhi 韓屋京姫 Korean restaurant

Korean restaurant right across from Genji Kyoto. Open for dinner until 22:00 last order. Enjoy authentic and sophisticated Korean cuisine in relaxing atmosphere.

04 Ixei 幾星 Bar with non-alcoholic spirits

Savor "drinkable perfume" in this next-generation distillery and bar that makes innovative non-alcoholic drinks from natural plant extracts, as well as traditional cocktails. Housed in a 140-year Machiya townhouse, it has a zen garden that complements the subtle elegant design.

05 Ki. Kyoto Lebanese restaurant

Popular Lebanese restaurant with vegan and meat dishes by Japanese chef. Cool, casual, sophisticated. Breakfast and lunch only.

06 Kawama Cafe 川間食堂 Cafe with river view

Cafe with good coffee and lovely river front location for experiencing atmosphere of the changing seasons. Try their rice burgers wrapped with seaweed, seasonal sandwiches or parfait.

07 Cinq Neuf Cafe with river view

Cool and stylish overlooking Kamo River and Gojo Bridge. Hand drip coffee, homemade cakes, light meals, even hamburger steak lunch served by friendly staff.

08 Hachi Record Shop and Bar Record shop/Bar

Enjoy music from vinyl records, craft beers and sakes with projected images in cool space where "craft liquor and analog records connect brewers/performers to you".

09 Soba Takahashi Japanese Soba

Soba restaurant in former tea house typical in our Gojo area, where Geiko performed for banquet guests. Enjoy the interior and atmosphere of a bygone era.

10 Rokujo Kawarain SAN Japanese Kappo

Chef owner creates Kaiseki course with a difference in a traditional Machiya just 2 minutes from Genji Kyoto.

11 Kaikado 開化堂 Canisters shop [since 1875]

Kaikado has been making tea caddies by hand since 1875. The caddies, in tin, brass or copper, are still crafted following the original 130 steps. Perfectly airtight for tea leaves or coffee beans, with color tones that age beautifully.

12 Effect Coffee Cafe

They take their coffee seriously here - you can order by strength from "relax" to "super very strong". Wash down with creative pastries that are stunning in looks and tastes.

13 Sonoba Japanese Soba

The reputation of this soba-cum-pottery shop is spreading fast. The food, the studio-made ceramics, the design of the space are all top-notch.

14 Walden Woods Cafe

Creative owner designed this cafe with "open and comfortable space in clean atmosphere" for relaxing with one of the best coffees in town. You're encouraged to "own your freedom" while there!

15 Tempura Kappo Yano 矢野 Tempura restaurant

This newcomer to the Kyoto Station area (opened in early 2023) has only 8 counter seats but is getting great reviews for the chef owner's hospitality and high quality offerings.

16 Lorimer Kyoto Japanese breakfast fish focus

It's back to basics here - fish, vegetables, rice and soup - the core of Japanese cuisine. Housed in a renovated Machiya, this unique restaurant with roots in Brooklyn serves breakfast and lunch by day and teaches cooking at night.

17 Cafe SNC Cafe

Relax and watch the world go by in this cafe opening onto the Rokujojin Park, named after the garden residence built 1,000 years ago and used as a model in the Tale of Genji.

18 Kaeru Cafe Cafe

Spot the frogs in this fun cafe named after our amphibian friend! There are at least 40 of them in different sizes and makes. Let them keep you company as you enjoy the home roasted coffee, light meals and desserts.

19 Work and Shop by Box and Needle Paper shop

This century-old shop sells Washi paper as well as collections from Italy, England, France, Finland, India and Nepal. Their craftsmen make exquisite boxes with natural glue on site. You too can learn to make original stationery and T-shirts in their workshop.

20 Soba no mi Yoshimura Japanese Soba

This sophisticated restaurant makes their soba on-site, serves noodles and buckwheat desserts in the day, and turns into an izakaya by evening with courses and a la carte items.

21 Sen Kyoto 榎 Japanese Kaiseki

Chef owner serves kaiseki dishes with his own collection of antique tableware. Enjoy the ambience of sukiya style interior updated from a traditional home that used to sell Japanese sensu fans.

22 酒呑 Nishikawa Kawaramachi Gojo Japanese Izakaya

Popular izakaya with wide selection of sake and authentic local dishes, including Japanese delicacies, sashimi, grilled and tempura seasonal items. Warm hospitality from chef owners makes for lively atmosphere.

23 2ème Maison Restaurant/Flower shop

Café and flower shop by day and bar at night, 2ème Maison has French-style decor, atmospheric lighting and heart-warming dishes.

24 Kano Cafe Cafe

Cafe in old building nestled along leafy Takase River with modern Asian style as theme.

25 Sanshiki Udon 讃式 Japanese Udon

Highly popular spot for homemade thick udon noodles. Small shop, English menu available, excellent as a pitstop on the way to Kiyomizu Temple.

26 Harise はり清 Japanese Kaiseki | since 1659 |

Founded in 1659, Harise can be proud of its heritage and long relations with local vendors and clients. Enjoy authentic Kyoto cuisine in a traditional setting with views of a zen garden.

27 Hambey-Fu 半兵衛麩 Japanese restaurant & Fu shop

Caution: fu = wheat gluten! This famous maker of fu and yuba (dried soy milk skin) was founded over 330 years ago. The soft water of Kyoto is great for making fu, and as fu is high in vegetable protein, it became widely used in Kyoto temple cuisine.

28 Azuma Sushi 東すし Sushi restaurant

Order sushi in assortments or piece by piece in this most popular restaurant favoured by locals. No English menu but good quality at reasonable prices.

29 Douraku 京料理道楽 Japanese Kaiseki [since 1640]

Be transported back in time as you enjoy exquisite kaiseki courses at Douraku, founded 380 years ago and one of Kyoto's top restaurants (not to be confused with the Douraku crab chain restaurant).

30 Veg Out Vegan cafe

Enjoy Kamo River views with breakfast or lunch at this vegan cafe by Shichijo Bridge. It promotes a vegetarian lifestyle with healthy food and yoga to achieve simple pleasures in mind, body and spirit.

Vegan

31 Crafthouse Kyoto Craft beer pub

Set in a creatively restored century-old machiya, this magnet for locals and foreigners serves craft beer, craft coffee and organic dishes with a view to providing "an elevated craft beer bar experience that you won't forget in a hurry."

32 京カレーうどん ECHIGOYA Japanese Udon

The specialty in this new shop (opened Nov 2023) is curry udon, served with beef, tempura or vegetables. Menu is helpfully bilingual.

33 Kaikado Cafe Cafe/Shop

This offshoot of Kaikado tea caddy shop is housed in a an old tram warehouse converted into a bright and airy space with partially exposed concrete walls and copper lamps made by Kaikado themselves. Enjoy Nordic design and Kaikado's own tea, coffee and cheesecake.

34 Kyoto Beer Lab Craft beer pub

Cosy brew pub along Takase River with 8 taps of new world craft beers served in a contemporary Kyoto setting. For something different, try "cha-beer", or beer infused tea.

35 Cité Vintage clothes/Cafe

A cafe and shop for vintage clothing and ceramics from Europe, run by a couple who used to live in Paris. Afficionados swear by their coffee, and their homemade pineapple cake is becoming a big hit.

36 Murmur Coffee Cafe

Cafe by Takase River with home roasted coffee, and commitment to make seasonal soups and juices with the best farm produce that they source from Kyoto and Hokkaido.

37 Kusemono Saketen Japanese Sake bar

An intimate sake bar with standing tables, a connoisseur's selection that can be tasted by the glass, and a friendly atmosphere where locals and visitors can mingle with ease.
